

LAT103-O: Introductory Latin (Omnibus) – 3rd Quarter – Fall Term

- Professor: Ms. Jenni Glaser
  - Students: Omnibus
  - Class day(s) and time: Longer Format: Tuesdays and Thursdays, 7-7:45 PM Eastern Time (US).
  - Language of instruction: English and Latin
  - Course description: This course will consist primarily of guided reading and guided practice in speaking and listening centered around Hans Ørberg's famous introductory textbook Lingua Latina per se Illustrata: Familia Romana, preferred by active-Latin instructors the world over. These sessions will prepare you, the student, to complete other exercises online which will fill out the learning experience and reinforce what you have learned. We will complete at least chapters 16-21 of the textbook. At the end of this experience, you should be able to sustain your part of a simple conversation in Latin, and write a simple Latin paragraph, about the content of the textbook or about similar topics using the same vocabulary and structures.
  - Language Prerequisites: Experience with content and structures of chapters 1-15 of Lingua Latina per se Illustrata
  - Other Prerequisites: none
  - Materials:
    - All materials are available from Hackett Publishing and may be purchased online.
    - Ørberg's Lingua Latina per se Illustrata: Familia Romana textbook*
    - Familia Romana Essentials Online e-courseware available from Hackett Publishing. *Images of the main Familia Romana textbook pages are included in the online courseware, therefore investing in the paper textbook, while not strictly required, is nevertheless warmly recommended.
- Optional:
- Jeanne Neumann's Lingua Latina: a Companion to Familia Romana (included in online material)
  - Ørberg's Colloquia Personarum ancillary reader
